IRISH "PRESENTATION" SNUFF BOXES.

- 521 A HANDSOME GOLD OVAL BOX, containing the Freedom of the City of Cork, presented to the famous Admiral Lord Rodney (16 Sept. 1782), who in 1780 defeated the Spanish fleet off Cape St. Vincent, and also in 1782 the French fleet under Count de Grasse, and for his services to his native country, was at first created a baronet, and then a peer, with a pension of £2000 per annum. The lid of the box is engraved with the Arms of the City of Cork, with supporters, and motto STATIO BENE FIDA CARINIS, and surmounted by a naval crown and trophy; below the arms is a floral festoon; the sides are also engraved with rich floral festoons between a beading at top and bottom. Inside the box are the maker's initials, W. R. (William Reynolds, Goldsmith, of Cork); the weight of the box is 5 ozs. 10 dwts. 12 grs. 1

* * * This gold box was exhibited by Robert Day, Esq., J.P., F.S.A., in the Historical and Relic Section, at the Naval, Shipping and Fisheries Exhibition, London, 1905.

- 522 A silver CIRCULAR BOX, CONTAINING THE FREEDOM OF THE CITY OF CORK, PRESENTED TO THE RT. HON. THE EARL OF SHELBORNE (30th Oct. 1756). The body of the box, which is plain, is similar in shape to a mazer bowl, and has a rim at the bottom in place of a foot; the lid is of repoussé work, finely chased, and bears the Arms of the City of Cork, with motto, surrounded by floral and scroll work; inside the lid and the body of box are the maker's initials, W. R. (William Reynolds, of Cork, Goldsmith); the weight of the box is 4½ ozs. 1

* * * The Rt. Hon. William Petty Earl of Shelbourne was born in 1737, and died in 1805. His career commenced in the army, in which he became a Major-General, distinguishing himself at Minden and Kampen, and was made A.D.C. to King George III in 1760; he succeeded to the Earldom in 1761, was made Premier in 1782, and created Marquis of Lansdowne in 1784.

- 523 A fine silver circular Box for holding the Freedom of the town of Athlone, circa 1730-1770; the body of the box is plain, but the lid is engraved with the Arms of the town of Athlone, with motto URBES. STANT. LEGIBUS surrounded by floral scroll work, above is engraved SIGILLUM OPPIDI ALONIENSIS 1663. The box bears a Dublin hall-mark (temp. 1730-70), and the maker's mark, W. C. (William Currie) inside the lid, and also inside and outside the body, and weighs 4 ozs.

* * * The date of 1663 on the lid is the year of the second Charter, the first of 1606 having been forfeited by King James II.

- 524 A fine silver circular Box, presented to Nicholas Bonfoy, Esq., when he was admitted to the Freedom of the City of Limerick on the 4th of June, 1755 (from a copy of an entry in the records, made on the 23rd July, 1902, and signed by Wm. Nolan, Town Clerk, Limerick). The body of the box is "bowed," and it has a flat base; the lid is engraved with the Civic Arms (a castle flying the pennon of St. Patrick on central turret), and above is inscribed "The Corporation of the City of Limerick to Nicholas Bonfoy, Esq.;" there are two maker's marks (I – I divided by a lion rampant) inside the lid and body of box, and it weighs 5 ozs. 1

* * This box was made by John James, Warden of the Cork Guild of Goldsmiths, 1691. At this time Limerick had not recovered from its repeated sieges, and afterwards there is no evidence of its ever having working silversmiths or their Guild in its city, and the fact of its Corporation having to purchase boxes in Cork is a strong proof of this. The probability is that John James supplied a quantity or a large number to Limerick to be given away when its freedom was granted to distinguished persons, and this will explain how one of the number, although made circa 1700-1720, was not wanted until 1755; and hence the box ante-dates the dedication by at least fifty years.

- 525 A fine silver circular Box, presented to Lewellin Nash of Farrihy in the county of Cork, when he was admitted to the Freedom of this city in 1763. The body of the box is plain, and similar in shape to a mazer bowl, but with a rim at the base in place of a foot; the lid is of repoussé work, finely chased, and bears the arms of the city of Cork, with motto, surrounded by floral scroll work; inside the body of box is the maker's mark (G. H.) of George Hodder, and around the base is engraved: "CORK 1763, JOHN SMITH ESQ^R MAYOR – FRAN^S ROWLAND & WIL^M COLES ESQ^{RS} SHERIFFS – LEWELLIN NASH OF FARRIHY IN THE COUNTY OF CORK ESQ^R WAS ADMITTED AN HONORARY FREEMAN OF THIS CORP^N AT THE REQUEST OF THE SHERIFFS—AND THIS BOX WAS PRESENTED HIM BY HIS GRANDSON FRAN^S ROWLAND, NOT FOR THE VALUE BUT IN TESTIMONY OF HIS LOVE"; the weight of the box is 3½ ozs. 1

* * George Hodder, who made the above box, was grandson of the first Protestant Mayor of Cork, who gave a silver tankard and mace to the Staple Society.

- 526 A fine oval Shell, mounted in gold, as a Snuff-box, and chased with floral and scroll ornamentation, an interesting relic of the House of Braganza 1

* * This box was a present from the Emperor of Brazil in 1807, to Captain Davies, R.N., from whose sister it came into Mr. Day's possession.

- 527 A silver-gilt circular Box, with lid engraved with the armorial bearings of the Guild of St. Loy, Dublin, with motto, BY. HAMMER. AND. HAND. ALL. ARTS. DO. STAND, and at the bottom, it is also engraved "The FREEDOM of the Ancient and Loyal Corporation of SMITHS or Guild of Saint Loy DUBLIN is herewith presented to ROGER PALMER Esq", In 'Testimony of their Approbation of his conduct in PARLIAMENT, &c.," dated the 23rd of June, 1768, hall-marked in three places, in original leather case 1
- 528 A silver Poke Sundial with compass, made by R. Blondeau, Paris, 1664, whose signature is inscribed on the back, "Roch. Blondeau Paris 1664" in two lines, size 1.95 by 1.45, a very fine and interesting timekeeper of over 200 years ago 1
- 529 A silver Snuff-box, with chasing in low relief, perhaps French work of early part of last century, subject "Pelican and young," on lid 1
- 530 A Casket of coloured agate (to represent lapis lazuli) and ormolu, with key, presented by Lord Brownlow to the Day Collection; and a chased silver circular Tobacco Box, of Indian workmanship 2
